Best Practices for Your Trade-In Program

- Ensure trade-in is integrated within the buy flow of new devices
- Stay aware of your competitors' trade-in offers and adjust accordingly
- Use the value of the trade-in offer to offset the cost to acquire
- Providing instant credit with chargeback is vastly superior to bill credits and store credits
- Include key messages around the benefits of trade-in such as maximizing latent value, convenience, and/or good for the environment
